Roger Sabon & Fils

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Les Olivets 2010

92 points | 250 cases imported | Red

Rock-solid, with layers of fig, boysenberry and blackberry pâte de fruit supported by a smoldering tobacco note and backed by a long, ganache-framed finish. Offers ample stuffing and grip, with the tannic spine of the vintage. Best from 2015 through 2025.—J.M.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Réserve 2010

94 points | 200 cases imported | Red

This is gorgeous, with lush linzer torte, boysenberry pâte de fruit and plum sauce notes that captivate, while anise, Lapsang souchong tea and singed apple wood notes fill in the background. The long finish is fleshy and driven. Best from 2016 through 2030. From France.—J.M.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Prestige 2010

95 points | 200 cases imported | Red

This has power and guile, with dense layers of blackberry, black Mission fig and black currant fruit lined with substantial but velvety tannins. The long, spice- and black tea-infused finish has a good bass line in the background. Best from 2017 through 2030. From France.—J.M.
